Selectmen's Meeting

POLICE APPOINTEES

Police Chief Duane Tuttle discussed with Selectmen the present and future needs of his department for manpower. Tuttle explained a study he had made to compare the possible addition of a full time officer to the service of several part time men who fill in for regular men who are absent because of vacation, sick leave, court time, etc. According to the Chief's figures, it would be more economical to employ a regular full time man than to use other full time men at time and one

This leaves him with a manpower shortage on weekdays he explained. He said that court cases due to parking violations are overloading the public prosecutor and discussed possible solutions to this problem which is due to increase. The Chief said that a strip of land overgrown with brush behind the Cathay Temple is providing cover for vandals and asked if the Board of Selectmen could authorize money to cut it down. Chairman R. William Blasdale said that he was opposed to spending town money on private property and the other Selectmen agreed. They asked the Chief to approach the landowners and explain the problem. The Chief said the strip is a "rabbit warren" of tunnels through the heavy brush.

The Board took the Chief's figures on part time vs. full time officer to study and appointed Curtis M. Connor of Prospect Road and James E. Froughton of 7 Pearl Street as part time patrolmen acting upon Tuttle's recommendation.

Chairman Blasdale accepted an invitation from Chief Tuttle to give a welcoming speech at the Southeastern Regional Police Association meeting at the Harbor Beach Club on August 10.

Peter Plastridge was granted a common victualer license to operate Kitchen 21 on Church Street, Mattapoisett, formerly Richard's Ark.

PROTESTS NAME CHANGE

Mr. Earl Holden of Saunders Avenue appeared before Selectmen to express opposition to a name change for his street. He said that 20 residents would have a minimum of 2000 address changes to accomplish and stated that this inconvenience was simply to perpetuate the name of the developer who would call the street Crook's Way.

CETA JOB UNWANTED

Executive Secretary Stephen Lombard reported to Selectmen that the advertised CETA labor job has attracted only one applicant who proved non-eligible. The Selectmen asked him to go out of town to try to find applicants.

MATTAPOISETT VISITORS

Many a Mattapoisett villager has been delightfully surprised to hear a familiar hail from a new face in town. Former Selectman Robert Silveira and his wife Maureen are in Mattapoisett for a week's vacation and are busily trying to see as many old friends as possible. The Silveiras chose this week so that they can attend their class reunion. They now reside in Hollywood, Florida between Ft. Lauderdale and Miami and like this area very much. There is no place like a home town though for fast friends and there will be much to catch up on this week for this couple.

Nuclear

CROCODILE TEARS FLOW FROM INEVITABLE PROTEST MARCHERS

Editorial - D.C.J.

During the past week there has been much breast beating on the TV news deploring the dropping of the atomic bomb on Japan. There were three very definite results from that action. One mentioned, in passing, is that the bombings ended World War II. This averted the invasion of Japan and allowed possibly hundreds of thousands of American and Japanese fighting men and civilians a new lease on life. A second point, that we do not hear mentioned, is that the United States tried to warn the Japanese so as to avoid the necessity of using the bomb. Unfortunately, the intermediary chosen was the Communist Russians who pulled their inevitable double cross in withholding the warning while they poured troops into China. The third result was that the horror of the devastation was so complete that a World War III has not taken place over a period of 30 years. The nuclear lesson was clear without the placards and the marchers who owe their safety to

St. Philip's Services

Bishop Albert A. Chambers of the Diocese of Springfield, Illinois (Episcopal) and former rector of "The Church of the Transfiguration", New York City, will again be heard from the pulpit of St. Philip's Church, Mattapoisett, on the Sundays of August 14th and 28th. This is a return of his visit last year.

For his retirement years, Bishop Chambers has chosen residence on Cape Cod.

Members of all faiths are welcomed at St. Philip's Episcopal Church, located on the waterfront. "The St. Philip's Window" celebrates the activities of those who draw their living from the sea or pursue their pleasures of sailing, even with a small Beetle Cat sailboat among the

the most comfortable seats on the Cape; an intimacy and feeling which draws the audience into the type of productions The Gateway Players have been known to produce. "PICTURES IN THE HALLWAY" by Irish playwright Sean O'Casey proves an inspired vehicle for the first show. It holds some thought for everyone. One could hear a pin drop as the tale of Johnny Casside's romance and revolution is unleashed.

The cast delivers with accustomed excellence. Dorothy Taylor is sensitive and humorous as the long suffering Mother. Kevin Michael Feeley is a delight as young Casside. Youngsters attending will identify with his particular lot. Daniel P. O'Connell, Jr. is consistently clear and witty as the Narrator; Kay Carter Blaha powerfully effective as Alice Boyd the Presbyterian, and Daisy Battles, the women in the boy's life. Tom Gillmore is particularly clever as Old Greenberry, the Jewish merchant.

Pulitzer nominated director George W. Hayden brings out the Gaelic flavor for action and excitement. Chris Gaucher's Irish flute music adds unquestionable charm. The set -- a pencil portrait of O'Casey himself by John Montanez is most authentic.

"PICTURES IN THE HALLWAY' repeats at the new Gateway Playhouse AUGUST 11-14, 19 and 20 at 8:30 P.M. with a matinee Saturday, August 13, at 2 P.M. Tickets are on sale at the box office or reservation: 295-6768.

For an intelligent evening of summer theater make this tale of Irish youth your cup of tea.

Letter to the Editor

In all of this controversy over the Algebra I class taught at the O.R.R.J.H.S., I have not heard anyone mention that his/her child has put in hours of study every evening, has confronted the teacher with questions that went unanswered by the teacher and, therefore, left the student frustrated, or has spent hours speaking on the telephone with fellow classmates in the hopes of overcoming the difficulty of this new subject.

When do we begin to realize that our "above average" elementary grade student must at some point in time learn to apply himself in order to become educated. It is my opinion that unless a student is challenged to the point of literally "racking his brain", he will not really go through the process of learning.

In all this controversy over the Algebra I class in the O.R.R.J.H.S., I never once heard mention the responsibility of the student. When does an individual become responsible for his actions and accomplishments -- not only bearing the "pain" of it, but, perhaps, also the glory.

Mattapoisett Grange Fair

Gardeners, quilt makers, cooks, and canners ---- the Mattapoisett Grange Fair date approaches! August 27th is the time to show your stuff!

We've seen many gardens this year. Show some of your produce, see what others have raised, and win a prize.

In the vegetable and fruit competitions there are two classes. You can enter both, but only once in each. The collection is an arrangement of five or more kinds of fruits or vegetables in an appropriate container such as a wooden bowl or basket. The plate class is a specific number of a fruit or vegetable placed on a plate for judging. These should be as near the same size as possible. Beans in pods are shown in groups of 15; small types of tomatoes and plums in 10's; beets, corn, tomatoes, peppers, apples, and like sizes in sets of 5; cucumbers by 3; melons, heads of lettuce, cauliflower, and other -- along with bunches of grapes, etc. by 2's; and dried beans and berries by the pint.

We'll cover flowers and canned produce briefly next week. Meanwhile, for more information and specific listings, you may call Mildred LeBaron or 758-6629.

Tobey Guild

"GET ACQUAINTED" LUNCHEON

New officers for 1977-78 for the Tobey Hospital Guild were recent guests of Tobey Hospital administrator Warren E. Bishop at the annual "get acquainted" luncheon held in the dining room of the hospital. Fifteen officers and four chairmen were present and enjoyed a delicious, tastefully served meal, prepared by Chef Gil Mello and the dietary department. All were called forward to receive, personally, an expression of appreciation from the guests.

Administrator Bishop expressed gratitude for past generosity of the Guild and its cooperation shown during thirty-six years of aid as an auxiliary organization of the hospital. He spoke briefly of ongoing renovations and redecoration in parts of the hospital, particularly in the maternity section where the Guild is providing funds for new draperies.

Prior to the luncheon, a meeting of the newly elected officers was held at the Tobey Homestead. Mrs. William E.C. Warr, Jr. presided.

Outstanding among the various reports was that of Mrs. Lionel LaRocque, Gift Shop/Cart chairman and manager, who presented a check for $4,000. to the Guild, taken from the year's profits from that service project. Appreciation was extended to Mrs. LaRocque, the committee and to the volunteers, all of whose dedicated and extraordinary efforts and service made

The resignation of Mrs. Edward Watts, Jr. as director from Mattapoisett was accepted with regret and Mrs. Charles Caires of Mattapoisett was elected by the board to fill that vacancy.

Miss Gertrude Dennison was named chairman of the 1977-78 nominating committee which will present a slate of officers for 1978-79 at the April meeting.

First vice president Mrs. Russell Nilson is chairman of program and of the annual Appreciation Day in February; second vice president, Mrs. Charles J. Huntley, chairman of Flowers and Toys for Patients; Mrs. C. Hammett Cowell, recording secretary, was named parliamentarian and will assist with publicity.

The president's appointees as chairmen of standing committees for 1977-78 were confirmed. They include: Educational Fund, Mrs. Uune Penti; hospitality, Mrs. John Gayoski; legislation, Miss Helen Estes; meditation
